Dollar Days!

We're all agreed... it's tough to save a penny these days, let alone dollars. Which reminds us of a story... Seems there was an old farmer once upon a time who was the richest man in the neighborhood. He was visited one evening by a young man who asked him the secret of his wealth. "Well, son, it's a long story," replied the old man, "and while I'm telling you I might just as well put out the lamp and save the oil." "Thanks," said the young fellow, "but you needn't tell me the story. I think I understand!"

Can't all be that thrifty, but by golly there's an easier way... To shop Downtown it always pays, Especially on Dollar Days!

Pretty bad poetry, huh? But a good idea. So remember the dates, mates! Today, Thursday, Feb. 16, and continuing through Friday and Saturday, Feb. 17 and 18. Torrance Dollar Days, with bargains galore just for you!

WOMAN SIDE

The Dollar Day Committee of your Retail Merchants Association seriously pledged themselves to make this the greatest Torrance Dollar Days ever.

What's SAM LEVY'S going to do about it? Here are some instances:

Full, full, circle and a half cotton skirts, diamond quilted in mouth-watering Spring colors... lemon, lime, pink, white, and natural. All sizes. Fresh, new, lovely, $8.95 value at only $5.98!

Take a traditionally men's material, make a classically feminine outfit with it... and you can't lose! We have it... a shirt and full circle, quilted skirt made from men's Oxford cloth shirting. They're short-sleeved, softly tailored, pearl-buttoned shirts, with exactly matching skirts... in blue, pink, violet and beige. A $17.95 value (at least)... for just $12.95!

Jane Holly shirts in 100% Dacron... the answer to your travel and work needs! In periwinkle blue and moss green, perfectly tailored and with convertible collar. The value is $4.98, the price, an incredibly low $2.99!

Good shopping gals. We know you'll have fun!

MAN SIDE

Man, are we impressed! Just waiting for your eager picking (or send the little woman if you're too busy) is the biggest bargain and the best selection in Sport Shirts we've ever seen! Stock up now, and relax all Spring and Summer. Take your choice of long or short sleeves... $4.95 is the regular price, but they're yours for Dollar Days at just $1.99!

In case you didn't get enough ties at Xmas time... see our new stock of handsome patterns for handsome guys at handsome (low, low) prices.

OUR SIDE

It's good to save dollars... and sometimes good to give them too! Proud to report that the YMCA drive, headed locally by Sam Levy is off to a flying start. Got a kick out of the first report luncheon on the Drive last Friday... 28 men and two women... dynamic enthusiastic Mary Pajac of the National Paint Store, and our own Ella. All doing a fine job for our boys and city. All they need is help... Yours!

It's a great town, our Torrance. Come Downtown and see for yourself, especially on Dollar Days, and most especially at 1311 Sartori. SAM LEVY DEPT. STORE. Naturally!

Fireladies Set Social Events

The regular meeting of the Torrance Fireladies was held recently at the home of Mrs. Harlan Whitacre, 2240 West 231st street. A calendar of social events for the coming year was adopted. The next meeting will be held Monday, March 5, at the home of Mrs. Jerry Loy, 2116 Middlebrook road. A Valentine's Day pot luck supper was held at Higgins brick yard on Monday evening for the "A" shift and on Tuesday evening for the "B" shift. The parties were for all of the Firemen and their families. Each couple brought a covered dish and their own table service. Coffee was provided by the auxiliary.

Teenagers to The Rescue In Torrent

The torrents of dew that poured on the Torrance area were enough to dampen the spirit of the most hearty, but Mrs. Emma Harris of 2813 1/2 Buckingham drive, Los Angeles, found that the spirit of a helping hand is not diminished by a little thing like a high tide.

Mrs. Harris, a child care attendant at the Harlan Shoemaker elementary school for the physically handicapped in San Pedro, was driving north on Western when she momentarily lost control of her car. This, coupled with a loss of brakes, put her in a rather awkward spot.

North High had just completed its school day and students, including Senior Al Legus, were beginning the wet trek homeward. When Al spotted Mrs. Harris' car with water already high enough to enter doors, he grabbed some of his buddies, Lionel Gillespie, Errol Guillano and Dale Hardman and came to the rescue.

With shoes off and pants rolled up above the knees, the boys looked more like grunion hunters than car movers. The car, mired in mud and water two feet deep was difficult to budge, but eventually they turned the wheels in the right direction and Mrs. Harris was again under way, very grateful to the students from North high and their spirit of consideration.

They were accepted by Donald Whann, secretary of the local organization.

Receiving the new charter as well as a gavel in honor of his office was Joseph Bellante, president. Making the presentation was Harold M. Heimbaugh, past governor of the California-Nevada-Hawaii district. About 200 individuals witnessed the ceremonies and enjoyed the prime rib dinner.

The evening was arranged by a charter program committee from WALTERIA, Lomita and Torrance. Local men serving on the committee included Charles Scott, Jack Weinstein, John Forsberg and Robert Owens. Kiwanis clubs attending the gathering included, besides those from WALTERIA club, Hermosa Beach, Palos Verdes, Lomita, Torrance, Gardena and San Pedro.

RECREATION BUILDING APPROVED

Acting at the request of Supervisor Kenneth Hahn the county board of supervisors this week approved a $21,791 contract for the construction of a community recreation building in EL NIDO park.

With construction of this modern new building greatly increased recreational facilities will be made available to the people of a large area of EL NIDO the southern section of Lawndale, North Torrance and Redondo Beach, Supervisor Hahn said.

Under terms of the contract, the contractor, Walter Kropff Construction Company, should begin work on the building during March and the building should be completed in four months time.

The new recreation building will be located in EL NIDO park, set back approximately 200 feet from Kingsdale avenue at the curve just south of 182nd street. Supervisor Hahn said that the building will be approximately 60 by 120 feet and will contain a large recreation room, a kitchenette, storage rooms, entryways, and public toilet facilities. A concrete walk will be installed on each side of the building.

Theatre Sets Public Tryout For Roles in 'Tender Trap'

Initial try-outs for "The Tender Trap," three-act comedy to be presented by ACCENT: Theatre! in May and June, will be conducted tonight, February 16, at the YMCA, 2080 Washington.

There are roles for men from 25 to 35 years of age, while considerably younger women can be used—older, depending on appearance and ability, Hudson said.

He also listed auditions for the olio entertainment which will accompany "Lily, the Felon's Daughter," old-fashioned melodrama to be presented by ACCENT: Theatre! for the YMCA fund drive benefit. A barber shop quartette, song-and-dance specialties, and top-notch instrumentals are being sought for the March 3 engagement and will be reviewed at the YMCA Tuesday, February 21.

"Some of the acts selected will also be used for the South Bay Osteopathic Auxiliary "Frontier Party" on March 10," Hudson added.
